KSFY Media Camp FAQs

June 10-14, 2019

WHAT: Work with the professionals at KSFY TV during Summer Media Camp, a tremendous opportunity for high school students interested in becoming the future newscasters of Sioux Falls. The Washington Pavilion and KSFY are partnering to offer an exciting week of broadcasting, acting, production, and behind-the-scenes action. Students with a passion for journalism and an interest in a newsroom career are encouraged to apply.

WHEN: June 10-14 from 9 a.m.-12 p.m.

WHERE: Media Camp will take place at the Washington Pavilion and KSFY studio.

WHO: Students, ages 14-17, with an interest in broadcasting, acting, production, and media. From the field of applicants, 10 students will be selected to participate based on their ability and interest demonstrated through writing and a brief video clip audition.

COST: Thanks to the generosity of KSFY, this opportunity is free for the selected students.

TAPED AUDITION: With their application form, students will need to submit an audition recording of themselves presenting a mock news story of their own creation no longer than 3 minutes. DVDs, video files, or YouTube links are all acceptable forms of recordings for review. As an alternative to an audition via video, in-person auditions will be held on April 17 and 18 and can be arranged for by contacting DAPA.

WHAT ARE THE CAMP ACTIVITIES?

From creating promos and sales pitches to interviewing people for a news story, students will experience several different facets of the media world – all in one week! Students will glimpse the steps it takes to piece together a news story and better understand all that happens behind-the-scenes. The week will culminate in the creation and presentation of a 5-minute newscast which will air on KSFY News.

WILL I GET TO BE ON THE NEWS?

Yes! Students will work together to create a 5-minute newscast that will air this summer on the KSFY evening news.
