

SCHOLARSHIP OPPORTUNITIES AT YOUR WASHINGTON PAVILION

Join us for extraordinary programming in science, art and theatre!

Experiences at the Washington Pavilion are far from ordinary. Kids get to explore the worlds of art, science and theatre through exciting, educational opportunities. A hands-on approach helps students develop creativity, utilize their problem solving skills and think outside the box. From STEM Create Camp and The Art & Science of Water to Squeeze and Sculpt and DAPA Youth Theatre productions, there is something for everyone! For the full list of available programs, visit our website.

Open Door Initiative: The Open Door initiative offers increased access to Washington Pavilion education programs for income-qualifying students. Thanks to funding from generous supporters, discounted tuition rates will be available at 1/3 the list price to qualifying families. To qualify, your family must have one of the following: EBT card, WIC packet or free/reduced lunch notification letter.

Connecting Kids & Scholarships: The Washington Pavilion has an active scholarship program for any family in need of assistance and serves as a Connecting Kids partner. Visit our website for a scholarship application and further details.
