

Open Clay Studio

Sunday from 12–5 p.m. | Rogers Clay Studio

Come and get your hands dirty, make something amazing and enjoy the process with an afternoon (or four) of pottery fun.

Open Clay Studio is a self-directed experience with volunteers on hand to check participants in. Guests must be ages 15+ and have either completed a Washington Pavilion pottery class or have prior wheel experience. Clay is available for purchase ($14 for a 12 lb. bag) — all you need to bring is your creativity!

Daily Pass | $17–$20 plus tax

- One Sunday session (12–5 p.m.)
- Use of wheels, extruder, slab roller and clay tools
- Includes glazes and firing (ready in two weeks)

4-Session Pass | $50–$60 plus tax

- Four Sunday sessions (12–5 p.m., expires in one year)
- Save money + includes personal storage space for supplies and in-progress projects
- All other benefits as the Daily Pass

To access the Rogers Clay Studio, enter the Visual Arts Center on the 2nd floor of the Washington Pavilion. Go down one floor using the stairs or elevator inside the VAC.

Already a Pavilion member? Your experience is discounted!

Experience Your Washington Pavilion

301 S. Main Ave. Sioux Falls, SD 57104
WashingtonPavilion.org

